

New Theatre is a gift. As a playwright, I have been blessed with the gift of having a world premiere in an environment such as this! Truly. I can't say this enough. I cannot express what it has meant to me to work with this beautiful theatre. Ricky J. Martinez is one of Miami's gems. Eileen Suarez is a behind-the-scenes queen. This theatre is pure magic. I can never repay the gifts given here except to say thanks and continue to write gratefully.
